JUNIOR FISH AND GAME PATROL MEMBERS

The smartly-uniformed group above is the Junior Fish and Game Patrol, Troop No. 2, sponsored jointly by the Daly City and San Francisco Rod and Gun clubs.

These young fellows, ranging in age from 14 to 20, are under the supervision of the Fish and Game Division, State of California. They have a thorough knowledge of wild life conservation, fish and game laws, trapping, fly tying, rod wrapping and repairing. Chief enjoyments for the boys are hunting, fishing and camping.

Troop leaders are Louis Bianchini, representing San Francisco Rod and Gun club and Ed Moore, representing the Daly City club.

Bianchini handles the field work and instruction in casting, while Moore teaches rod wrapping, fly tying and use of the rifle.

The group, which meets every Wednesday evening at 5646 Mission street, is open to membership. Requirements are that the entrant be between the ages of 14 and 20 and that after a three-week period of study he passes an examination on the Fish and Game laws.

Organized for about 5 years, more than one hundred fellows have been graduated from this practical training course in conservation and sportsmanship. There are now about 20 members in the troop.

retary; Harry Zichosch, Robert Moore, Thomas Moore.

Savory Pot Roast with a very special gravy

by Dorothy Greig

IS there, I wonder, any dish to equal the appetite rousing savor of pot roast? Especially on a cold night?

You can't be hasty or slap dash about a pot roast. In cooking, it demands its full meed of minutes and quarter hours. But finally in all good time it reposes on the platter, fork tender, with little rivulets of juice oozing from its glistening sides. Served with a gravy of full bodied flavor, pot roast is a noble dish:

4 pounds beef, rolled
1/2 cup flour
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup suet or 3 tablespoons fat
Vegetables (2 carrots, 1 stalk celery, 1 medium onion)
1 can condensed tomato soup

A cut of beef from round, rump, chuck or shoulder is used for pot roast.

Mix the flour with the salt and pepper. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, then dredge with flour and seasonings. Melt the suet or fat in a heavy pan and sear ends and sides of the roast.

Place the seared roast on a low rack in the bottom of a heavy kettle or Dutch oven. (Beef bones may be placed in bottom of kettle and roast set on those, if rack is not available.) Cut the vegetables in pieces and put them in pan in which meat was seared. Cook in the fat for about ten minutes, then add one cup of hot water and pour all over the roast. Cover tightly and cook for two hours, turning occasionally. (The juices come out of the meat and roast finally cooks in its own juices.) Then add one can of condensed tomato soup and cook another hour.

Gravy for Pot Roast
Strain the vegetables out of the drippings and liquid from pot roast. Skim off fat.

4 tablespoons fat
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups liquid (meat juices and tomato soup from roast)

Cook the flour in the fat until frothy. Then add three cups of liquid, meat juices from roast with water added if necessary to make three cups of liquid. Add to the fat and flour and cook until thickened. Season if necessary. Serve garnished with mashed potatoes swirled into cone shape.

Crippled Children—

Volunteer workers are busily addressing thousands of envelopes at the office of the county chapter of the California Society for Crippled Children in preparation for an Easter Seal sale to secure funds to carry on work in this county for the care, cure and education of crippled children.

Mrs. Lancaster pointed out that the California Society for Crippled Children, operating through its local chapters, is the only statewide agency in California which seeks to solve every problem of the crippled child without limitation or red tape and without regard to how that child became crippled.

A Spring Salad Salute

By Frances Lee Barton

SALUTE Spring with a novel salad served on crisp lettuce and garnished with water cress and chicory.

It's still cool enough to fuss a bit over the salad course and the following salad is worth a lot of fussing at any time. It's a new combination formed into a jellied delight — just the thing for special guests.

DALY CITY SQUADRON NO. 410, SONS OF AMERICAN LEGION

The fine young fellows shown above are members of Daly City Squadron No. 410, Sons of the American Legion. This group, organized originally in 1935, has just recently been reorganized under the direction of Orville Tall-madge, chairman of Post No. 410's Sons of Legion committee.

Details of an active patriotic-social program are now being ironed out by the group, which meets the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month at 7:30 p.

m., Legion hall. Membership to this group is open to boys who are the sons, adopted sons, stepsons or grandsons of the American Legion. Boys whose fathers were killed in active service or whose fathers received honorably discharge from the army and have since died are also eligible to join.

Daly City Post No. 410 sponsors the Sons squadron for both Bayshore Post No. 473 and Sharp Park Post No. 515, as well as for itself.

Two good mixers are better than one

THERE you sit, watching the long road ahead as it dips and rises.

Under your feet there's a quiet whispering, to let you know that all eight able Buick cylinders are happily on the job.

You're giving not a single thought to what's happening under that long bonnet nosing out in front, but here's what's going on:

Instead of the single, compromise-size carburetor you find on most cars, this Buick FIREBALL eight with Compound Carburetion* has two good mixers on the job.

A single one of them—the front one—keeps you rolling smoothly, easily, quietly, on the very minimum rationing of gasoline.

But the other carburetor is alert and ready for any sudden need. Just tramp down on that accelerator pedal—it goes into instant action, giving you more fuel and more power for any emergency purpose!

It's almost like having two engines—one to handle normal requirements thriftily, another to team up with the first for extra oomph and wallop when you want it.

That kind of teamwork pays.

And owners by the thousand will tell you it's more economical too—as much as 10% to 15% more economical.

If you haven't experienced what it feels like to have that under the bonnet of your automobile, better go have that Buick demonstration now.

*Standard on all Buick SUPER, CENTURY, ROADMASTER and LIMITED models, available at slight extra cost on all Buick SPECIAL models.

At Farewell Party

Mrs. Alfred Rodrigues, 222 Oliver street, entertained at a large farewell party, Saturday evening, for her son, George Winans, who left Daly City Monday for service with the United States army.

More than fifty guests gathered around the beautifully decorated table to honor Winans, who has seen five years training with the National Guard and is now a sergeant. Red, white and blue decorations, a centerpiece of miniature soldiers and their camp, and a huge cake inscribed with the words, "You're in the Army Now" did much to express the sentiment of the evening.

The group also helped little Billy Ivey, nephew of the hostess, celebrate his eighth birthday. Afterwards, dancing and games were enjoyed. Guests were from Sunnyvale, Antioch, Mountain View, San Francisco and Daly City.

Winans will be stationed at San Luis Obispo.

COURT ST. MARY NO. 1155, OFFICERS AND CHARTER MEMBERS

Growing from a small group of 35 to one of 145 members in less than 11 years, Court St. Mary No. 1155, Catholic Daughters of America has shown continuous accomplishment since the time of its organization on July 13, 1930.

A Catholic organization, sponsoring unity and charity among Catholic women, it meets at Masonic hall the first and third Thursday of every month. The first meeting of the month is followed by a whist; the second by a social.

On March 31, 1941, Court St. Mary gained state-wide recognition when it had the largest init-

Hilarious Farce To Open Tomorrow For Three-Day Run At D. C. Theatre

"Christmas in July," which opens tomorrow at the Daly City theatre co-starring Dick Powell and Ellen Drew, is the second picture to be written and directed by Preston Sturges. His first picture was "The Great McGinty," a political comedy that was hailed with enthusiasm throughout the country as a masterpiece.

His current picture is another equally hilarious farce developed from a simple story of a boy and girl in love trying to get enough money ahead to get married. The hero is addicted to solving national contests as a short road to fame and fortune. He has never won one, but figures that everyone he loses makes his chances so much greater the next time.

Some practical jokers send him a wire announcing that he has won the $25,000 slogan contest for a nationally known brand of coffee. Taking the wire to the president of the company he collects the check, although the committee judging the entries is still trying to make up its mind about a winner.

Armed with the check he goes on a spending spree buying presents for everyone, even the neighborhood children. The department store is unable to cash so large a check but let him have the merchandise on credit. The coffee company president finds his mistake, notifies the store and both proceed with haste to his home. It is impossible to get the presents back, but the coffee executive does get his check and tears it up. How they get out of this embarrassing situation makes one of the funniest pictures of the year.

Sturges selected the supporting cast for Dick Powell and Ellen Drew with an expert eye for comedy. It includes Raymond Walburn, Ernest Truex, William Demarest, Alexander Carr and Franklin Pangborn.

Companion feature will be "South of Suez" with George Brent and Brenda Marshall.

BRUCE BOYNTON ATTENDS RECREATION CONFERENCE

Bruce H. Boynton, assistant San Mateo county supervisor of the WPA Recreation department, was one of the leaders who attended an all-day meeting of Army, Navy and WPA officials and allied interests on Sunday in San Jose.

Discussed in detail at the conference were the new recreation problems arising in the army because of the thousands of draftees now taking their places in the ranks. Several prominent speakers have been scheduled.

In addition to his position as assistant county supervisor, Boynton is WPA Recreation director of Daly City.

Classes

SENIORS

Yes sir! It doesn't seem possible that it is that time already, but it is.

Dina D'Elia, president of the senior class, announced her committee for graduation, last week.

The following will help with the preparations: Senior ball, Alice Bistolfi, chairman; Betty Coen, June Core, Amy Vincent, Lillian Giannecchini, Melba Frei, John Domecus, Ray Garibaldi, Bill Humphrey, Ed McIntosh, Art Sadler, and Violet Bullo.

Senior Jinx: Bill Clement, chairman; Gloria Pinochi, Lorraine Anderson, and Dominica Accinelli.

Cap and gown: Ann Plate, chairman; Lorraine Vernazza, Herb Poddig, and Gilbert DeGuerre.

Gift: Claudia Bertini, chairman; Lawrence Caserza, and Leonard Sorg.

COLOR WEEK

Remember all the fun, last semester, with the first color week ever held by Jefferson? I am sure you do. Well, this semester's week will prove to be more fun than you could ever imagine, so promises President John Razzari. This semester they have decided to combine "Color" and "School Spirit" weeks and plan a whole week honoring Jefferson.

Already the observance is under way. Monday, the Block "J" society held a ballet, and yesterday a school dance was held in the senior room. No one, without Jefferson colors, was allowed on the dance floor.

In yesterday's assembly, George Reiley, a member of the State Board of Equalization, spoke to the students on the "Serious Side of School Spirit."

BLOCK "J"

Monday, our Jefferson heroes tripped the light fantastic in a take-off on the Ballet. Dressed in swimming suits and long stockings, and painted up like true warriors, they tripped across the stage much to the delight of the student body.

Taking part were: John Razzari,

John Cacciapagli, Dick Rupert, Jack Rainey, Jack Faulk, Harland Ferrando, Jack Andriola, Dean Nelson, Bill Lekoff, George DeBono, Ed Briseno, Willis Sharp, and Bob Capps.

"Earning your Student Body Card Monday on the Slot Machine" was a comic skit put on by Roy DiVencenzi, Clive McAnders and Bob Lee.

Jennie Giusti and Herb Poddig did an "apache" dance.

In charge of the affair were Rub Wallace, master of ceremonies, Howard Vierra and John Razzari.

CSF

Friday in an assembly, thirty members of CSF received membership pins. Ed McIntosh and Pat Hernan received life membership pins.

Robert Grimes gave an interesting talk on the advantages of belonging to the society. Ed McIntosh gave, in brief form, the requirements for membership.

The CSF announced today that they had received an invitation from Chapter 292, Los Gatos, to attend the next convention. The date hasn't been definitely set, but it will be held some time during April.

Music

An activity calendar of interesting programs, has been scheduled for the coming year, by Dante Lembi, for his ever-popular Indians of Rhythm.

Last Wednesday, Jefferson's "Kings of Swing" put on an entertaining amateur hour. Appearing on the program for the first time were: Belli, "5 o'clock Whistle;" Sue Denton, "Frenesi;" Bicolo, "It All Comes Back to Me Now;" Harland Ferrando, "You Got Me That Way;" Lois Baker, "So You're The One;" James Matteucci, "There I Go;" Theresa Falbo, "I Give You My Word;" and Pamela Yorkman, "You Walk By."

Bob Seiler whistled "Eloise;" Clark, "Walking By The River;" Bob Dyer, "Nightengale Sang In Barkeley Square;" Ardis Natton, "Because of You;" Elizabeth Newton, "Amapola;" Louise Sowle, "Ferry Boat Serenade;" Betty Sheirdan, "The Same Old Story;" the band played a special arrangement of "Sing, Sing, Sing."

Lembi announced that a series of three "amateur hour" programs will be held, with the winner of each appearing on a huge final program. Last week's winner will be announced in the assembly tomorrow.

Monday the boys played for the Block "J" society's ballet; Tuesday they played for the color week dance, and tomorrow's schedule includes another talent parade in the second of their series of "amateur hours."

Sports

BASEBALL

Coach Louis Tsoutsouvas has lined up the following prospective Frosh-Soph team for the coming season.

Playing as first string will be: catcher, Tuvo; left field, Dawe; first base, Pidgeon; second base, Aiello; third base, Drago; short stop, T. Chreisten; pitcher, Fazio; center field, B. Fellows, and right field, Liebscher.

As soon as the weather turns toward "sunshine and flowers," the boys hope to go out and get ready to make a good showing.

VARSITY

A week ago last Monday, Coach Albert Biggs issued suits to the varsity. Coach Biggs is hoping for the best for his team and it is probable that they will place somewhere along the first three in the league. He has seven veterans back from last year's second place club. Probable starting lineup for the Indians will include: catcher, M. Huerta; third base, R. Valente; pitcher, B. Nava; short stop, S. Ragni; first base, B. Lekoff; left field, W. Chreisten; second base, J. Razzari; center field, H. Poddig; right field, W. Sharp.

Utility infielders will be James McKinnon first base; Enrico Arrighi, second base; Jack Rainey, third base. Dick Rupert will act as utility outfielder.

tion, will present the high school band and chorus, a series of dances—ballet, tap, and acrobat—by high school girls, a brass quartet, and a tumbling and boxing performance by the boys, the Cowboy Band and many other variety acts. The show will open with Keler-Bela's "Lustpiel Overture."

This year's Preventorium slogan, "Let's Give Them Health," has inspired the students and faculty of the local schools to produce a long and elaborate show, and they enthusiastically invite the townspeople to attend.

Grammar School News

At Woodrow Wilson Elementary School

ROOM 4

Slavery and the Civil War are occupying the interests of the pupils of Room 4. A classroom frieze, depicting scenes of famous Southern mansions, slave quarters, cotton plantations, and outstanding historical characters during this period will depict the eventual happenings of this era.

ROOM 9

Room 9 is preparing a classroom newspaper. The children have elected a staff to be responsible as a committee to see that the paper is organized and completed within a certain length of time.

Although the paper is in its preliminary stages, there are already several copies sold to members of the class.

THE HERALD

Every room at Woodrow elementary is striving to secure the "Pot of Gold," which is the incentive to speed circulation of the room paper, "The Herald." An attractive chart designed by the high eighth grade with individual miners racing toward their "Pots of Gold," which appear at the end of the rainbow on the chart, has been attracting the interest and cooperation of every member in the school.

At Crocker School

"Behind the Electric Switch" was the film shown to the pupils of Crocker school last Wednesday. This film showed the striking comparison between the past and present electrical conveniences.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team of Crocker played Our Lady of Perpetual Help boys on Wednesday, February 19. After a rough and tumble bout, Crocker basketballers came home with the winning end of a 28-6 score.

Lineup was as follows: forwards—Welsh, Greenough; center—Morales; guards—Patten, Valletta.

Substitutes were Fischer, Marquis, Francesconi, Anderson and Thauberger.

ROOM 1

"Yosemite Valley" and "Argentina" were two interesting films recently shown to the pupils of the high eighth grade in connection with their social studies unit.

ROOM 2

In developing the unit on Colonial Life the pupils of the high and low fifth grades are making a replica of early Plymouth, the first home of the American people.

ROOM 3

Last Wednesday the pupils of high sixth grade enjoyed an interesting film on "The Land of the Nile." The film helped acquaint the children with Egypt.

ROOMS 1, 4, 6

One of the best liked periods of the day for the seventh and eighth grades is art craft. One of the best equipped shops in San Mateo county is the pride of the students.

Basketry, woodcraft, leathercraft and metals are just a few of the many classes offered to the students.

ROOM 5

On February 21, the students of room 5 held a class program in honor of George Washington's birthday. In charge of the affair was Betty Jean Preston.

Those students taking part in the program were: John Thornton, Alma Becker, Beverly Rowe, Elizabeth Paradiso, Ann Patterson, Morfea Laves, Barbara Bohn, Jack Shipman, June Braxdt, Eleanor Quickert and Carol Crowley.

Budgeting Budgeteers

Most cities use a budget system, according to the National Consumers Tax commission, but the problem in many cities is getting the city fathers to live within their budget. Most common error is the assumption that the full levy will be collectible when experience shows that from 10 to 50 per cent will be delinquent.

At Jefferson School

KINDERGARTEN

Easel painting is one of the many interesting activities now carried on in the kindergarten. During the activity period the children interested in painting are given brushes and paints.

Some of the finished paintings seem to be mere blotches of color with no real form or shape, but to the child who is creating, the painting is as satisfying and perfect as the masterpiece of an artist, the teacher explained.

EIGHTH GRADE

The eighth grade social science class of Jefferson enjoyed a motion picture film "People Who Live On A Great Plain." The students learned that Argentina is one of the leading countries in the exporting of wheat, hides, lamb, mutton, wool and beef.

Bethel 68 Doesn't Believe In Boredom

"Never a dull moment" might well be the slogan for the young ladies who make up the membership of Daly City's Bethel No. 68, Order of Job's Daughters.

The light rains, Sunday afternoon, somewhat dampened the clothing, but not the enthusiasm, of fifteen members and their escorts who enjoyed a bicycle trip. The group rode to the beach and then returned via Golden Gate park.

Wednesday evening, the bethel put on the initiatory work for the deputy grand guardian, Miss Frances Handford of Burlingame. The new candidates initiated into the order were Miss Dorothea Wilde and Miss Barbara Elston.

About 45 members and their friends attended a tea given by honored queen, Miss Margaret Barrick, on Saturday afternoon at her home in South San Francisco. In the evening nearly the entire membership of the bethel went in a body to visit Bethel No. 37, San Francisco.

Included in the plans for the near future will be a swimming party at the Fairmont hotel plunge, Friday evening; a slumber party will be held at the home of Miss Shirley Woltzen, Saturday evening.

Wednesday evening, March 12, a dinner will be given in the banquet hall in Masonic temple, followed by an entertainment under the direction of Vera Vogelsang. A nominal charge will be made, and all friends of the bethel are invited to attend.

Exemplification and initiation of new candidates will be held, March 21, for the Francis Drake Lodge F. and A. M. in South San Francisco.
